This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) under the authority of S.C. Code Ann. §§ 58-9-10 et seq. and 58-9-710 et seq. on the Petition of the Office of Regulatory Staff (“ORS”) to revoke the Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity of certain telecommunications companies for failure to file annual reports. Specifically, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 58-9-280(G)(3) (Supp. 2008) and 58-9-370 (Supp. 2008) as well as 26 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-612 (Supp. 2008) require telecommunications companies certificated in South Carolina to file annual reports. The failure to file annual reports may result in the revocation of a holder’s certificate. ORS’s Petition contains a list of telecommunications companies who failed to file annual reports. A hearing for the revocation of these companies’ Certificates was held on October 28, 2009.

At the hearing, Jeanne Gordon, employed by ORS as a Program Specialist in the Telecommunications Department, testified that certain telecommunications companies certificated by the Commission remained out of compliance for not having filed annual reports. In support of Gordon's testimony, ORS offered a revised list of those companies that remained out of compliance at the time of the hearing.¹ She testified that ORS notified these companies of their non-compliance by certified mail. However, none of the companies appeared at the hearing.

The Commission finds that ORS's Petition against those telecommunications companies who were in compliance with the annual report requirements at the time of the hearing should be dismissed. The Commission also finds that the Certificates of those companies who remained out of compliance with the annual report requirements at the time of the hearing, as indicated by the revised list submitted as evidence by ORS, should be revoked and cancelled.

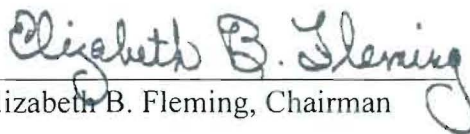

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

The Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity held by those telecommunications companies in the revised list submitted by ORS at the hearing, which is attached to this Order, are revoked and cancelled. All operating rights of these companies are null and void. Additionally, ORS's Petition against those companies who are now in compliance is dismissed.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commission.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION:

Elizabeth B. Fleming, Chairman

ATTEST:

John E. Howard, Vice Chairman
